CITIZENS TO BE HEARD:

CORRESPONDENCE:

Oriental Trading catalogs; Burke catalog; 4imprint catalog; Beacon Athletics catalog; Positive Promotions mailer; copy of the Sunny Bunny order; PO for the Sunny Bunny order; notice for the town reorganization meeting; paperwork from the NJ Herald about the adequate notice listing; copy of Marybeth's 5-year term

OLD BUSINESS:

Holiday Celebration - The event went well. Attendance was low. The attendees seemed to enjoy the craft table, the photo booth and Santa with the new set-up. The music hooked up to speakers worked out just as well as the DJ from prior years. Reverend Matlack is leaving Stanhope Presbyterian so we'll need to reach out and introduce ourselves a few months before next year's Holiday Celebration.

Holiday Decorating Contest - The 2019 winners were 4 Sunset Avenue, 10 Lloyd Avenue, 13 Bell Street, 14 Sagamore Drive, 22 Bedford Ave and 146 Brooklyn Stanhope Road.

NEW BUSINESS:

Easter Egg Hunt - Christine will ask Dominick to be the bunny again this year. The committee needs to go to the shed and take an inventory of what's left from last year. The Sunny Bunny order is in. Christine will put a requisition in for the cookies, juice and prizes.

Casino Bus Trip - The cost of the bus has gone up from previous years. Do we want to do a casino trip at all with all the other town events and the regular casino trips planned by the seniors? Carmen will look into prices on the buses and the cost of a trip to a Skylands game.

Family Fun Day - Marybeth will reach out to Kona to reserve for our date. We will plan to purchase the pretzels again and to rent the hot dog cart. Avery will start soliciting donations. Other possibilities to make Family Fun Day exciting: face painting, a bounce house, a petting zoo from Hidden Pastures or Sugar Sweet Farms, partnering with a pet rescue.

BILLS:

None

ADJOURNMENT:

With no further business, a motion to adjourn was made at 7:37 p.m. by Carmen Pico and 2nd by Marybeth Dibernard. Our next meeting will be held on March 4, 2020.
