CITIZENS TO BE HEARD:

None

CORRESPONDENCE:

Memo re: missing 2019 minutes; memo re: budget; Oriental Trading magazines; PO for Family Fun Day

OLD BUSINESS:

Casino Trip - Cindi is going to investigate a trip to Wind Creek in Bethlehem.

Miss Stanhope - The event went well. Faith Jenkins won.

Family Fun Day - The event went well. We ran out of food. Cindi will write up letters. We had plenty of prizes but next year we need to think across the board for kid's prizes (maybe gift cards instead?). Think about adult games in addition to the kid's games. Consider replacing the cotton candy with popcorn next year as it would be easier than the cotton candy machine. Patty offered a hot dog cart and popcorn machine for next year.

NEW BUSINESS:

Halloween Parade - Avery will order the Oriental Trading items. Christine will do the PO for the Oriental Trading order and the cookies & juice. Avery will investigate reserving the fire department hall and asking for a candy donation from the fire department. We need to go to the shed and take inventory.

Holiday Celebration - We need to investigate a new backdrop for the holiday celebration.

2020 Budget - Avery will put together the preliminary budget for review.

BILLS:

None

ADJOURNMENT:

With no further business, a motion to adjourn was made at 7:40 p.m. by Marybeth DiBernard and 2nd by Cindi Klein. Our next meeting will be held on October 2, 2019.
